Hook and Ladder Company
Holds Annual Banquet.

Judge Love Refuses to Confirm the Appointment of R. L. Marcey for Road Supervisor.

ALEXANDRIA, Feb. 27.—The funeral of Mrs. Benoni Wheat was held yesterday afternoon from St. Paul's Episcopal Church, the Rev. P. P. Phillips officiating. Interment in Ivy Hill Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Worth Huffish, Alonzo Houck, E. D. Daingerfield, Walter Roberts, George Uhler, and W. F. Lamb.

The Alexandria County supervisors recently recommended to the county court the appointment of road supervisors as follows: Lewis Peeverill, for Jefferson district; C. B. Graham, for Arlington district; Justice J. S. Marcey, for Washington district. Justices rejected the appointment of the two first-named, but refused to confirm the appointment of Mr. Marcey. The supervisors will make another recommendation.

The Relief Hook and Ladder Company held their annual banquet in observance of Washington's Birthday, at the Concordia Hotel.

Miss Flora Lee Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Martin, and Mr. Charles E. Sims, of Indiana, were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents by the Rev. George L. Hunt, of the First Baptist Church.

In a game of basketball played at Army Hall last night between the Morton Cadets, of Washington, and the Alexandria Light Infantry team, of this city, the Washingtonians defeated the home team by a score of 14 to 1.

In the police court yesterday the case of Samuel Mills, colored, charged with forgery, was continued until Monday next.

Frank Lewis, colored, died at his home on South St. Asaph Street Tuesday night.

The Alexandria Elks last night paid a visit to the Washington Lodge.

Miss Bessie Griffith is seriously ill at her home on South Washington Street.

An enjoyable birthday party was given Miss Carrie Crockett, at her residence 815 Queen Street. The party was very largely attended by her friends and relatives. Refreshments were served, and games were played to a very late hour.
